JOCKEY O'LEARY KILLED.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Jockey Frank O'Leary was fatally injured today in an accident which occurred during the running of the fifth race at Aqueduct. He had the mount on William Laimbeer's Randy. The horse had gone about a furlong after the start when G. E. Weightman, who had been interfered with by Ross Clark, stumbled and fell. Pettifogger and Randy, who were just behind Weightman, also fell. O'Leary, it is supposed, was hit by one of the horses that passed over him. His skull was crushed, and he died before the ambulance reached St. Mary's hospital to which he was taken. McJoynt, who had the mount on G. E. Weightman, escaped with a bruised back and crushed foot. Hewitt, who had the mount on Pettifogger was severely shaken up, but got off with a few bruises. Weightman and Pettifogger were hurt, but not seriously. Randy escaped injury. O'Leary was about 25 years old, a native of Prescott, Canada, and was under engagement to F. R. & T. Hitchcock and W. P. Burch. He was a good rider and gave promise of developing into one of the first rank this year. The body will be shipped to Prescott, the home of his parents, tomorrow night.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

In the Joyner stable is Mr. Perry Belmont's Ethelbert, who is undoubtedly one of the most thorough gentlemen in his appearance and in his disposition that has been on the turf for many a day. He is today in splendid condition and could easily be wound up for the Metropolitan if his trainer desired to send him to the post for the first of the great spring handicaps. Mr. Joyner has reached no decision upon the matter as yet, preferring to send the unquestionably high-class horse along without any haste, for, as he said, "There are many more events than the Metropolitan in which Ethelbert will have a chance to show his mettle, and that, too, at a distance where the three-year-olds won't have the best of it, as they have apparently had since the Metropolitan was reduced from a mile and an eighth to a mile, and Voter, Bowling Brook and Filigrane each won it as three-year-olds."

William McDaniel has been brought from the west to Gravesend to assist Green B. Morris in handling the large string of horses he has in training this season. It is more than likely the stable will be divided, and that McDaniel will have charge of the division intended for a western campaign. He is a born horseman, a brother to Henry McDaniel, the clever trainer of G. C. Bennett's string, and therefore a son of Colonel David McDaniel, who, in the seventies, was one of the ablest and most astute trainers on the American turf.

Mr. Pierre Lorillard visited Morris Park recently to inspect his stable, which is in charge of that clever trainer, A. J. Joyner, and all that saw him remarked the wonderful improvement in his appearance. The Rancocas air and the life upon the breeding farm seem to have benefited Mr. Lorillard greatly, and not for years has he looked in better physical trim. Besides his three-year-olds David Garrick, Maribert and The Chamberlain, Mr. Lorillard has about a dozen two-year-olds, all of Rancocas breeding. It is not at all improbable that his three-year-olds will render a better account of themselves this season than they did last year.

Speaking of the uncertainties of the turf and particularly of breeding Mr. Lorillard said that during the time he had owned Hoodoo, the dam of Mesmerist, the mare had been barren the greater part of the time, and had thrown nothing of any account, and that finally he had sold her for $75, whereupon she proceeded to throw the speedy Jinks and that great two-year-old Mesmerist.—Spirit of the Times.

SECRETARY KUHLE COMING HOME.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 24.—Harry Kuhl and bride left here this morning for Chicago. D. J. Lynch has returned from Flagstaff, Ariz., to defend himself against charges of fraud in connection with local racing.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Hon. W. C. Whitney, accompanied by his son Harry Payne Whitney, has been visiting La Belle farm, near Lexington, Ky., to inspect his horses quartered there. Mr. Whitney has Meddler, Lissak, Plaudit and some seventy of the finest broodmares in the country at this farm, besides a large number of young colts and fillies, weanlings, coming yearlings and two-year-olds, from which he expects to gather the nucleus of future racing stables.

In a letter to a trainer at the track Thompson Bros. say they will probably send Sidney Lucas here to start in the Turf Congress Stakes. The presence of the son of Top Gallant in this event will make it less easy for race followers to guess the winner of this race. With F. W. Brode, The Conqueror II, The Monk, Ida Ledford, Knight-banneret and John Halsey as starters the contest would certainly be worth going a long way to see.—Nashville American.

Mannion & Connell have named the two-year-old bay filly by Longstreet—Margery Daw, Agnes Clare. Other two-year-olds in this stable have been named as follows: Geisha Dance, b. c. by Long Dance—Sally Howard, and Davidson, ch. c. by Onondaga—Novel. The three-year-old Walter Spain, by Top Gallant—Lizzie English, is now a member of this stable. The three-year-old Major Domo—Madge filly has been named Domadge.

The English Racing Calendar for April 5 contains a notice upon the subject of the starting gate to the effect that "the stewards of the Jockey Club advise clerks of the course to use the Gray machine at race meetings, as it is desirable that uniformity should be observed in the pattern that is employed. The Corandine machine has not worked satisfactorily."

The following stables will leave Memphis Saturday for Louisville: W. H. Laudemann, John F. Schorr, J. J. McCafferty, E. C. Headley, W. H. May & Son, T. P. Hayes, A. G. Weston, Liger & Dean, E. S. Gardner, Jr., P. Tomlinson, W. H. Robinson, Hiram Pierce, T. H. Ryan, W. M. Wallace, Woodford & Anderson, Hiram Scoggin, W. S. Barnes.

Frank Taylor's crack, Tillo, who was largely "on the shelf" last season, has wintered well at Saratoga, and has been brought down to Gravesend. He has not run since last June, but is likely to prove a good horse this year, and thus repay his trainer for the patience expended on him. His legs look capable of standing a strong "prep."

Jockey Vandusen has signed a contract to ride Mr. H. J. Scoggin's entry, either Florizar or Highland Lad, in the Kentucky, Latonia, St. Louis and Washington Park Derbys, the Clark stakes at Louisville and the Himyar at Latonia.

Mr. Orville West left Louisville for Nashville Monday with a string of horses. He took with him out of his own stable Nancy Till, Glad Hand, Tamarin and Prince Eothen, besides four others belonging to other trainers.

Installatrix, full sister to Installator, has a filly foal at the Elmwood Stock Farm by Salsuma, winner of the Burns Handicap in 1898 and runner-up in 1899.

Mr. J. Naglee Burke has disposed of Intrada to Mrs. Mary O'Rourke. He also sold Impromptu to F. W. Miner, who has engaged D. J. Lynch to train him.

Winner—B. g. by Reporter—Mary M.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won all out; second easily. Brown Prince showed fair speed and was lucky in securing a position next to the inner rail early in the race, but Lou Rey was best. He was all but left at the post and closed ground steadily. At the end he was overhauling Brown Prince rapidly. Yule ran a fair race. Polka showed plenty of speed for five furlongs but weakened badly at the end. Gold Baron was bumped at the start losing ground but seemed dangerous when turning for home. Bonibel showed a little speed. Judge Stouffer pulled up very lame.

Overweights—Petal, 2 pounds; Polka, 2; Yule, 1.

Brown Prince, place, 5 to 1; show, 24 to 1. Lou Rey, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Yule, show, evens.

Winner—Ch. f. by Brutus—Cosette.

Went to post at 2:45. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Corolla was slow to get to going at full speed, but got up after a drive a furlong from home and from there on it was easy. Coming Event showed high speed for five furlongs and then tired. Jack McCabe also weakened in the last furlong. Garbo and El Arte showed a little early speed.

Overweights—Aborigine, 5 pounds; St. Germain, 4.

Corolla, place, 3 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Coming Event, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Jack McCabe, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—B. f. by Herald—Santa Rosa.

Went to post at 3:15. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Ada N. ran a good, consistent race and was going away from the others at the end. Illusion finished strongly and likes a longer journey. Phil Archibald and Carilee weakened in the final sixteenth after showing considerable speed. Elkarn got off well and showed speed for a quarter.

Overweights—Elkarn, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. h, by Brutus—Nabette.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 11 minutes. Start good. The first five were doing their best. Twinkler had a lucky win although he ran a good race and finished strongly. Gauntlet was best but his rider threw the race away in the last few strides through carelessness. Twinkler Twink improved vastly over his recent running. Snips weakened when appearing dangerous. Stromo and Montanus were worn out in setting the pace.

Overweights—Twinkler, 1 pound.

Twinkler, place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Gauntlet, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Twinkler Twink, show, 8 to 1. Snips, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. c. by Himyar—Felicite. Went to post at 2:30. At post 25 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving. Himself took the short route and gradually wore down the leaders. He was going away at the end. Mudder delayed the start by refusing to join her field. When they were finally sent away she was off running. Vouch was on the outside all the way and under a hard drive all the last eighth. I Know stumbled at the three-eighths pole and was pumped out in a hard drive to get up.

Scratched—17483 Your Grace, 107. Himself, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Mudder, place, 9 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Vouch, place, 3 to 10; show, out.

Winner—Ch. h. by Turco—Sister Louise. Went to post at 3:20. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving. It was a two-horse race all the way. Spencer never made a move with Bannock until the last furlong. Rare Perfume was hustled all the last quarter and was stopping at the end. Post Haste was tiring, while The Gardener, after dropping out of it at the home turn, came again and got third place in the last stride. Bannock was run up $300 by jockey J. Tabor. Bought in by owner.

Scratched—17479 Robert Bonner, 109; Henry Bess, 104. Overweights—Post Haste, 3 pounds; Tony Honing, 2. Bannock, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Rare Perfume, place, 2 to 5. The Gardener, show, 3 to 1.

Time, 23, 48, 1:01½, 1:08.

Winner—Br. g. by Pontiac—Calypso. Went to post at 3:50. At post 20 minutes. Start bad. The first three were driving hard. Sir Christopher was the quickest on his feet at the start and, after racing Star Chime to pieces to the stretch, stood off Unmasked's challenge. Elfin Conig was coming strong on the outside and would have won in a few more strides. Sweet Caporal ran a winning race from where she got away. Lambert had little or no speed.

Scratched—17470 Meehanus, 122; 17482 Gaze, 120; 17445 Pink Domino, 106; 17481 Lamp Globe, 99. Overweights—Star Chime, 4 pounds; Elfin Conig, 2. Sir Christopher, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Elfin Conig, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Unmasked, place, out.

Winner—Br. c. by Sir Modred—Queen Bess. Went to post at 4:25. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second hard ridden. Kenilworth broke well in motion. Bullman was driving him though all through the stretch. He was swerving at the finish. Fake hugged the inner rail the entire route. Outlander got through early and ran a good race. Blues dropped out of it on the far turn but came very fast in the last furlong. He had to bump his way through on the inside in the last sixteenth. The Regent and Scurry on the outside were slow to get going but finished strong.

Scratched—Dachshund, 112; 17284 Infalible, 109. Overweights—Blues, 1 pound. Kenilworth, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Fake, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Morris entry, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Blues, place, evens; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by His Highness—Alhada. Went to post at 5:05. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving hard. Hesper ran all around his field and fought it out with Picardy in the run home. His was a good race. So was Picardy's. He came again at the end. Kamara was probably a bit short. He had lots of early speed but tired. Pink Domino took the short route but went to pieces after racing up to the leaders. G. E. Weightman fell after the field had gone a sixteenth, Randy and Pettifogger tumbling over him. O'Leary sustained fractured skull. McJoynt fractured the big toe of his right foot and wrenched his back. Hewitt was badly shaken up.

Scratched—17410 Shamokin, 103; 17403 Lottie Sherville, 96. Overweights—Pink Domino, 1 pound; Randy, 1. Hesper, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Picardy, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. Kamara, show, 2 to 1. Pink Domino, place, 2 to 5; show, out.

Time, 25½, 49½, 1:16.

Winner—B. c. by Cavalier—Tamarack. Went to post at 2:30. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Al Caskey was the best, had speed in plenty and came away when ready in the stretch. Incidental was slow to get going and closed a big gap. Etta Fonso was always near the front and ran a good race. Galtoway and Medarttha were prominent in all the breakaways. Harry Yochum had no chance from where he got off.

Overweights—Grace Logan, 1 pound. Al Caskey, place, 6 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Etta Fonso, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Galtoway, show, 4 to 5.
